DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

2. The drawings were received on 9/30/04. These drawings are acceptable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-12 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mills (6,311,204) for the same reasons as set forth in Section 2 of the previous office action, paper number 7, dated 3/26/03.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 7/25/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant continues to assert on pages 2-3 of Remarks that Mills fails to disclose different formats stored contemporaneously in a memory. However, upon a closer study of applicant's own specification, the only instance of the word "contemporaneously" is found in the Summary section of the Specification. Further explanation of such storage technique is illustrated in Figure 5 and pages 16 and 17 of the Specification. Based upon applicant's own disclosure on these pages, the storage method of Mills meets the claimed "contemporaneously" technique in its broadest sense. In particular, Figure 2 of Mills illustrates that memory 40, comprising multiple ring buffers, supplies data of different formats (e.g. 5-5-5-1, 4-4-4-4, etc.) to processor 60. Depending on the format, processor 60 decodes the data according to various CLUT formats 110. Therefore, unless more specific limitations are included in the claims, it is submitted that the decoding technique of Mills meets the current claims in its broadest reasonable sense, consistent with applicant's own teachings.

With respect to applicant's argument on pages 3-4 of the Remark, applicant agreed that one of Mills' goal is to reduce memory requirement. Therefore, it is submitted that the decoding process as illustrated in Figure 2 is based on these constraints.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
